

Octo Earns Spot on DC Inno's 2018 50 on Fire; Also Named an Inno Blazer

November 20, 2018 – At an awards event at the National Union Building on November 15, Octo Consulting Group, Inc. was named one of DC Inno's 2018 50 on Fire. The 50 on Fire awards honor people, companies, and organizations that are heating up D.C.'s innovation economy.

“One of the reasons Octo was selected was because of our emergence from the small business market in the past year,” said Mehul Sanghani, Octo’s Chief Executive Officer. “2018 was a banner year for us – we experienced phenomenal growth. We won 28 new contracts with 12 agencies, hired 166 new employees, and increased revenue by $20 million.”

Octo was thrilled to earn additional recognition as an “Inno Blazer” at the event. A panel of local judges named Octo as the top company trailblazing new paths in the Government and Advocacy category. Winners for each category of this prestigious award receive the signature red Inno Blazer jacket. Octo will proudly display both the jacket and the 50 on Fire awards at its headquarters in Reston.

One of the reasons Octo was selected was because... of our phenomenal growth.
